Caddo Sheriff’s detectives arrested a Greenwood woman for contributing to the delinquency of juveniles who were provided alcohol at a party, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

On November 5, Detective BreAnna Gerbine investigated a complaint involving a high school after party in the 7400 block of Golden Meadows in Greenwood. Gerbine discovered that Dawn Elizabeth Cooper, 45, was present at the residence and provided the alcohol to the juveniles.

A warrant was obtained for Cooper’s arrest, and on December 6, she turned herself in to authorities and was booked into Caddo Correctional Center on nine counts of Contributing to the Delinquency of Juveniles.
