The Caddo Sheriff's Tax Department will be closed for the Christmas holiday

Friday, December 22, 2023
Posted by Brandon Fountain

The Caddo Sheriff's Tax Department will be closed for the Christmas holiday on Monday and Tuesday, December 25 and 26, and on January 1 for New Year's. Tax payments will be considered delinquent if postmarked after December 31.

Located inside the Caddo Parish Courthouse at 501 Texas Street, the Tax Department's regular hours of operation are Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m., with the exception of holidays.

Payments can be made in person, by mail, online at www.caddosheriff.org, or by calling 1-833-538-8539. Payment options include cash, check, cashier's check, money order, or credit card. Payments on the website are made by credit card or ACH. A convenience fee collected by a private processing company for phone or online service will be assessed.

The mailing address for the Caddo Sheriff's Tax Department is P.O. Box 20905, Shreveport, LA, 71120-0905. The phone number is 681-0638, and the fax number is 681-1179.

Questions about assessments should be directed to the Tax Assessor's Office.

If you have questions about your taxes, contact our tax office by calling 318-681-0638 or emailing tax@caddosheriff.org.

If you did not receive a bill, you can view tax information at www.caddosheriff.org.

Pre-payments for next year's taxes are accepted from January 1 through October 31 each year. Applications are available on the sheriff's website.