Shreveport man arrested for contributing to juvenile delinquency

Friday, January 19, 2024

Caddo Sheriff’s detectives arrested a Shreveport man for inappropriately communicating with juveniles, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

On January 19, Detective BreAnna Gerbine arrested Courtland Coleman-Savannah, 23, after a forensic investigation disclosed he exchanged pornographic material and inappropriate text messages with three juveniles.

Det. Gerbine charged Savannah with three counts of contributing to the delinquency of juveniles. He was booked into Caddo Correctional Center.