The Caddo Sheriff's Office hosted its first Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers (FLETC) Firearm Instructor School. The school is a two-week program that was held at the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Regional Training Academy, located at 123 Highway 1 South, Shreveport, LA. The school took place from July 15 to 26 and was attended by law enforcement agencies throughout the state. Attendees were required to qualify with a long rifle, shotgun, and pistol. Additionally, they had to teach on a topic assigned by the FLETC Instructors before completing the school.

Two of our deputies, Sgt. Michael McConnell and Deputy Cory Bourn, attended the school and fulfilled the requirements established by the Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers to become FLETC Firearms instructors. Congratulations, and thank you for all your hard work and dedication.

Thanks to Bryan Reeves and the other FLETC instructors for visiting Caddo Parish and coordinating the school.
