Caddo-Shreveport Narcotics Unit makes arrests in three north Caddo Parish towns

Friday, October 16, 2009
The Caddo-Shreveport Narcotics Task Force executed three search warrants in north Caddo Parish towns on Wednesday, said Sheriff Steve Prator and Police Chief Henry Whitehorn.

The first occurred at 15220 Christian Street in Hosston and resulted in three arrests. A small amount of marijuana was also found inside the residence. Arrested were Daniel Lawrence, 30, for possession of marijuana, 2nd offense; DeCarlos Taylor, 26, for possession of marijuana, 1st offense; and Elenora Pouncey, 27, for possession of marijuana, 1st offense. All three are from Hosston.

At 112 South Pardue Street in Vivian, agents recovered marijuana and 11 grams of crack cocaine. Arrested were Joel Polk, 35, and Dianthony Green, 21, both of Vivian, for possession of marijuana and possession of crack cocaine with intent to distribute.

The last warrant was executed at 6720 Bolinger in Blanchard. Agents found 6.2 grams of marijuana and five Xanax bars during the execution of a search warrant. Arrested were Alan McIlwain, 25, and Cody McIlwain, 19, both of Blanchard, for possession of schedule IV CDS â€“ Xanax; and Brett Hope, 21, of Frierson, for possession of marijuana.

Each of these search warrants was the result of a brief narcotics- related investigation.
