Woman charged in stabbing

Wednesday, October 21, 2009
Caddo deputies were dispatched to a domestic dispute Tuesday night that resulted in the victim being stabbed on Hiawatha Drive in north Caddo Parish.

Upon arrival, deputies learned that the female victim, 39-year-old Bridgett Coker of Shreveport, had been stabbed by her roommate, also a female, 33-year-old Shawn Booth of Shreveport. The offender fled the scene on foot after the stabbing. A short time later, Booth was located by deputies in the area and taken into custody without incident.

Booth was transported to Caddo Correctional Center where she was booked for aggravated second-degree battery.Coker was transported to LSU Health Sciences Center for treatment of non-life-threatening injuries.