CPSO's Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness is hosting an orientation on Church Safety

Wednesday, June 11, 2025
Posted by Breck Scott

To enhance safety in churches across Caddo Parish and its surrounding areas, the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness is currently offering two awareness training classes tailored for churches, synagogues, and mosques.

This free course aims to prepare places of worship and the public for potential active attack situations and various hazards, including severe weather. The instructor will discuss Louisiana laws regarding concealed carry in religious settings, procedures for carrying concealed weapons in these facilities, security recommendations for your place of worship, and how to develop effective emergency plans.

The classes will be held at the following locations:

- Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office Safetytown: 8910 Jewella Avenue, Shreveport, LA, on July 9th at 6 PM.
- University Church of Christ: 2045 East 70th Street, Shreveport, LA, on August 13th at 6 PM.

Additional venues will be announced soon.

For any questions, please contact Lt. Tony LeBlanc at 318.675.2255. No registration is required to attend.