Today, a check presentation ceremony took place in the conference room of the Willis Knighton North Eye Institute, located at 2611 Greenwood Road in Shreveport, LA. The event celebrated the Medical Center's generous donation of $48,000 to the Anglin/Meyers Initiative. This funding will be used to install cameras in strategic locations throughout Caddo Parish. Caddo Parish Sheriff Henry Whitehorn Sr. and Shreveport Chief of Police Wayne Smith, along with Clay Young, the chairman of the Louisiana Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Foundation, accepted the check on behalf of the Initiative. They expressed their gratitude to Willis Knighton for this significant contribution.
