

Caddo Sheriff to Host Babysitting Clinic

Thursday, July 17, 2025

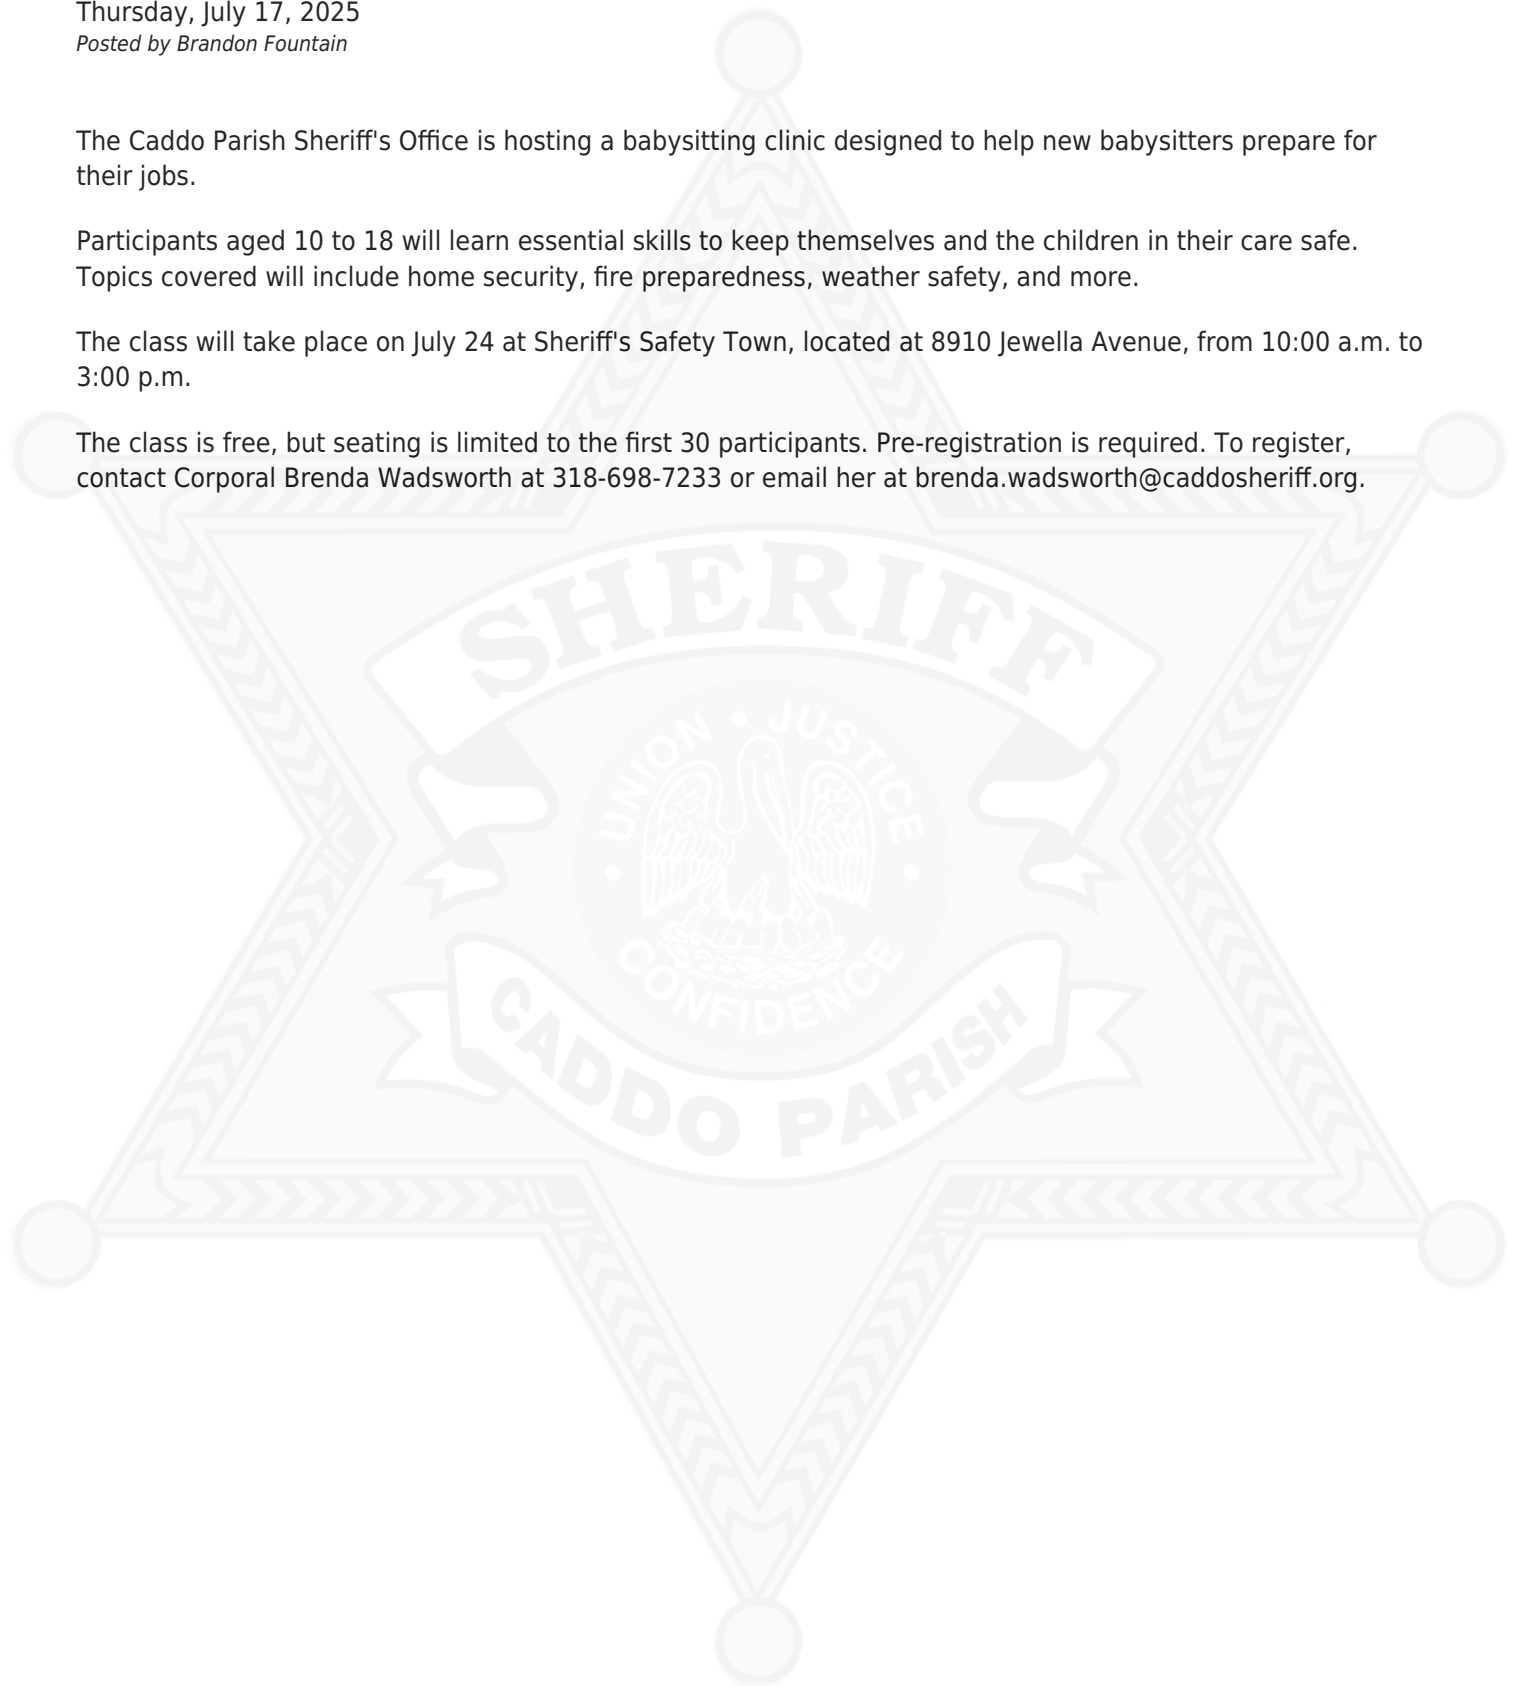

Posted by Brandon Fountain

The Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office is hosting a babysitting clinic designed to help new babysitters prepare for their jobs.

Participants aged 10 to 18 will learn essential skills to keep themselves and the children in their care safe. Topics covered will include home security, fire preparedness, weather safety, and more.

The class will take place on July 24 at Sheriff's Safety Town, located at 8910 Jewella Avenue, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The class is free, but seating is limited to the first 30 participants. Pre-registration is required. To register, contact Corporal Brenda Wadsworth at 318-698-7233 or email her at brenda.wadsworth@caddosheriff.org.

The poster features a teal header with the text "BRIGHT MINDS" in large orange letters and "BABYSITTING CLINIC" in smaller white letters. In the top right corner is the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office logo. The central part of the poster contains three circular images: a woman smiling at a baby, a man holding a baby, and two children playing. The background is light blue with a large, faint, stylized star graphic. Decorative orange and teal circles and dots are scattered around the text and images.
