Vivian man arrested for burglary, arson

Tuesday, December 1, 2009
A Vivian man was arrested for breaking into the office of the Monterey Hills apartment complex and setting the filing cabinets on fire.

Loly Nelson, 23, of the 300 block of Lowland Street, was arrested at the Caddo Correctional Center where he was being held on unrelated charges.

Following an interview, Caddo Sheriff's Detective Donnie Laney filed additional charges of simple burglary and aggravated arson against Nelson.

The burglary occurred on June 16. Someone broke into the office through a window, stole a computer, and then set fire to files inside a filing cabinet. The apartment complex is located in Vivian.
