Caddo Sheriff's Office to sell unclaimed animals

Tuesday, December 1, 2009
Several animals are on the auction block at the Caddo Sheriff's Office after being unclaimed by their owners.

The Sheriff's Office will accept sealed bids on the animals from 8 a.m. until noon December 9 at its 4910 North Market Street substation.

Up for sale are a pony, a mare, and miniature donkey. All of the animals were loose when they were picked up by the Sheriff's Livestock Patrol. The animals were advertised but never claimed by their owners.

For more information contact Sgt. Doyle Smith at 681-1120.
