Three arrested for ballpark break-in

Wednesday, December 23, 2009
Three suspects have been arrested for committing a burglary at the Blanchard baseball park.

Duane Shaw, 19, Hunter Reed, 17, and a 15-year-old juvenile are accused of breaking into the concession stand and stealing two cash registers, a safe, and several snack items. The burglary took place sometime between September and October.

The burglary netted the suspects only a small amount of cash. The safe and registers were found destroyed in the woods behind the field.

Shaw and Reed were booked into the Caddo Correctional Center following an investigation by Sheriff's Deputy Chad Davis. The juvenile was booked into the Caddo Juvenile Detention Facility.
