Caddo SO seeks owners of stray animals

Monday, January 11, 2010
The Caddo Sheriff's Office has recovered five stray animals and is looking for their owners.

A bay horse was found December 30 wandering in the street at Kesley and Linnear in the Martin Luther King Jr. neighborhood.

A female donkey, two male donkeys, and one black stud horse were picked up today on Self Road near Belcher after they were found in a hay field.

All of the animals will be sold on Feb. 26 if their owners aren't located before then. For more information, contact Sgt. Doyle Smith at 681-1120.
