Caddo Parish youth will have the opportunity to explore future careers at the upcoming Career Expo Day Camp on Monday, April 6 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Sheriff's Safety Town, 8910 Jewella Ave. Youth ages 9-13 are invited to attend the one-day camp.

Students will have the opportunity to visit booths representing a variety of career fields, including firefighting, health care, cosmetology, and law enforcement, among others. Hands-on activities and demonstrations will encourage children to begin thinking about their future goals.

Lunch will be provided. For additional information, contact Vernita Williams at (318) 681-0869.
