Caddo Parish Sheriff Henry Whitehorn Sr. recently honored two longtime deputies for their outstanding commitment and dedication to public service during a special recognition ceremony.

Lt. Donnie Laney and Sgt. Kevin Stewart was recognized on April 23 for reaching the milestone of 30 years of service with the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office. Throughout their careers, both deputies have demonstrated professionalism, leadership, and a steadfast commitment to the citizens of Caddo Parish.

"Thirty years of service is a remarkable achievement and a testament to the dedication these deputies have shown to this agency and our community," said Sheriff Whitehorn Sr. "Lt. Laney and Sgt. Stewart has each made a lasting impact through their service, and we are proud to recognize their contributions."

The ceremony highlighted the importance of experience and commitment within the Sheriff's Office, as well as the role veteran deputies play in mentoring the next generation of law enforcement professionals.

The Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office extends its sincere appreciation and congratulations to Lt. Laney and Sgt. Stewart for their decades of service.
