The Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office arrested a man following an investigation into threatening social media posts directed at women, stated Sheriff Henry Whitehorn Sr.

On May 5, 2026, detectives from the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office were alerted by an employee of Country Aire Mobile Estates about threatening statements made by resident Kevin Brown, 28, on social media. Detective Edward investigated the complaint and discovered that Brown had posted on Facebook, referencing the murder of women.

During the investigation, detectives found out that Brown was currently on probation. The Sheriff's Office coordinated with Louisiana Probation and Parole officers to take Brown into custody on May 7, 2026.

After further investigation, investigators arrested Brown for Terrorizing and probation violation. He was then transported to Caddo Correctional Center and booked on the aforementioned charges.
