Mother and Daughter Arrested Following Disturbance at Booker T. Washington High School

Wednesday, May 13, 2026
Posted by Breck Scott

On May 13, 2026, at approximately 10:10 a.m., Deputy Charles Daniels, the School Resource Officer, responded to a disturbance at Booker T. Washington High School. The incident involved a parent and two students, one of whom was her daughter, according to Sheriff Henry Whitehorn Sr.

According to investigators, Jennifer Farmer, 40, was at the school to pick up her daughter, Kentavia Farmer, 17, when an altercation broke out as they were leaving the campus. During the incident, Kentavia became involved in a physical fight with another student.

Surveillance footage from the school reportedly showed Jennifer Farmer assaulting the other student.

Deputy Daniels attempted to restore order and detain the involved parties. Following their investigation, Jennifer Farmer was arrested and charged with:
- Dist peace-engaging in a fistic encounter
- Resisting an Officer
- Unlawful disruption of the operation of a school

Kentavia Farmer was also arrested and charged with:
- Resisting an Officer
- Dist peace-engaging in a fistic encounter
- Unlawful Disruption of the Operation of a School
- Enter/remain in places/on land after being forbidden
- In-state fugitive

Both Jennifer Farmer and Kentavia Farmer were transported to the Caddo Correctional Center, where they were booked on the aforementioned charges.

The investigation is still ongoing.

Attachments

