The Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office (CPSO) is proud to announce a generous donation of $2,000.00 from EXCO Operating Company in support of the CPSO Domestic Violence Unit.

This contribution will directly assist the unit's ongoing efforts to provide essential resources, support services, and advocacy for victims of domestic violence throughout Caddo Parish. The donation helps strengthen the department's mission to protect victims, raise awareness, and promote safer communities.

Sheriff Henry Whitehorn Sr. expressed gratitude on behalf of the Sheriff's Office, stating that the support from EXCO Operating Company will make a meaningful impact. "We sincerely appreciate this donation. These funds will help provide critical assistance to individuals and families affected by domestic violence and enhance our ability to respond to those in need."

The Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office extends its heartfelt thanks to EXCO Operating Company for its commitment to community safety and support for victims of domestic violence.
