

Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office swears in four new deputies

Monday, October 26, 2026

Posted by Breck Scott

Caddo Sheriff Henry Whitehorn Sr. swore in four new deputies for the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office on October 26.

The newly appointed deputies are:

Corrections:

Makesha Harris-Evans - Asst. Chief Detention

Cheryl Avery - Compliance Coordinator

Patrol:

Christopher Thompson

Johnny Romero

The Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office is currently recruiting new personnel. Applicants aged 21 and older can apply for various positions, including corrections deputies, licensed practical nurses, registered nurses, building and groundskeepers, and part-time courthouse security personnel.

For more information on qualifications, benefits, and the application process, please visit www.caddosheriff.org.

Attachments

