The Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office is requesting the public's help in finding a man from Vivian who has been missing since November 2021, according to Sheriff Henry Whitehorn Sr.

Kindley Thompson, 79, was last seen in the 800 block of NW Front Street in Vivian. He suffers from Alzheimer's disease and is known to frequently walk around town.

Investigators do not suspect foul play in Thompson's disappearance; however, detectives are continuing to seek new information that could assist in determining his whereabouts.

The Sheriff's Office encourages anyone who may have seen Thompson or has information about his disappearance to come forward.

Anyone with information is urged to contact Detective Jeremy Edward at (318) 675-2170 or the Caddo/Shreveport CrimeStoppers at 318-673-7373.
