A suspect wanted in connection with an October shooting in north Caddo Parish has been taken into custody, according to Sheriff Henry Whitehorn Sr.

On October 3, 2026, Caddo Parish Sheriff's deputies responded to a shooting incident in the 8000 block of Rodessa-Ida Road. The victim sustained non-life-threatening injuries and was treated at a local hospital.

During the investigation, detectives identified Recordoz LeFrebron Ned as the suspect and obtained an arrest warrant for attempted second-degree murder.

On Monday, November 16, members of the United States Marshals Task Force located Ned in the 2500 block of Southern Avenue in Shreveport. He was taken into custody without incident and transported to the Caddo Correctional Center, where he was booked for one count of attempted second-degree murder.
