

Teen cited for cyberstalking

Wednesday, March 19, 2008

A Shreveport teen was cited by the Caddo Sheriff's Office for posting threatening comments on another teen's My Space page, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Shanika Graves, 19, of the 3500 block of Kingswood Drive, was issued a misdemeanor summons for cyberstalking by Caddo Sheriff's Detective Michael Escude'.

Graves is accused of using her own My Space page and the victim's My Space page to post messages and photos intended to threaten the victim. Included were photos of Graves holding and pointing a pistol, which she referred to in her threats to the victim.
