Store clerk arrested for stealing from register

Tuesday, April 13, 2010
A cashier at a local discount store was arrested for stealing money from the store's register on multiple occasions.
Deandre Dotson, 20, of Shreveport, was arrested for felony theft by Sheriff's Detective Alan Davidson after Dotson was caught on video taking several hundred dollars from the register.

Detectives say Dotson stole cash at least 19 times. The loss is currently valued at $3,300. At the time of his arrest, Dotson had two stolen $100 bills hidden in his shoe.