The office manager for a local furniture store was arrested by Caddo Sheriff's detectives for using the store's business account to pay personal bills.

Sheila Donald worked for Creamer Furniture, where she used the business account and routing number to pay $15,000 in personal bills.

Caddo Sheriff's Detective Bobby Herring of the Caddo-Shreveport Financial Crimes Task Force obtained an arrest warrant for Donald, who was taken into custody in Amarillo, Texas, where she was employed as a state correctional officer.

Donald, 37, was extradited to Caddo Parish and booked into Caddo Correctional Center for bank fraud.
