Doctor arrested for stalking

Tuesday, September 7, 2010
A doctor at North Caddo Medical Center was arrested for stalking a female hospital employee, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Dr. Harry Mobley, 65, of the 400 block of Southaven in Shreveport, turned himself in at the Caddo Correctional Center on a warrant obtained by Caddo Sheriff's Detective Terry Richardson.

Mobley is accused of making repeated sexual comments to the employee, which grew in intensity and scope over time. The comments continued over a nine-month period.

Mobley was released on $10,000 bond following his arrest.
