Keithville man arrested in Florida on outstanding Caddo warrants

Tuesday, September 7, 2010
A Keithville man was located in Florida by the U.S. Marshal's Fugitive Task Force and was returned here to face felony charges brought by the Caddo Sheriff's Office, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Jonathan Clay Blake, 26, was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center on outstanding warrants for illegal possession of stolen things and domestic abuse battery.

Blake is accused of possessing and selling copper welding leads that were cut from machines and stolen from Clarke's Allied, a welding fabrication shop at 10355 Linwood Avenue, on October 12, 2009.

Blake is also accused of battering his wife on June 9, 2010. Caddo Sheriff's Detective Terry Richardson said Blake went to his wife's workplace to talk with her. After getting into the car with him, Blake drove off with his wife towards south Caddo Parish and into east Texas. Along the way he struck her, pulled her hair, and threatened to kill her.
