Fast food clerk arrested for stealing customer's credit card number

Tuesday, April 1, 2008
A manager of the Taco Bell restaurant in the 9400 block of Mansfield Road was arrested for stealing a customer's credit card number.

Caddo Detective Bobby Herring of the Caddo-Shreveport Financial Crimes Task Force arrested Sharanda Broadway, 25, of the 3200 block of Newman Lane, for unauthorized use of an access card.

Herring said Broadway stole the credit card number and later used it to make an unauthorized charge of $100 to Taco Bell, then took cash from the register. Broadway was issued a misdemeanor summons.