Woman jailed for stabbing

Thursday, April 3, 2008
Caddo sheriff's detectives arrested a woman for stabbing her roommate this morning on Amblewood Lane in south Shreveport.

Laketra Williams, 32, of the 9700 block of Amblewood, was booked into Caddo Correctional Center for aggravated second-degree battery.

Williams is accused of stabbing Lisa Ivory, 44, with a steak knife during a domestic argument. Ivory was taken to LSU Health Sciences Center where she was admitted for treatment of her injuries.
