CSO seeks info on missing woman

Tuesday, January 25, 2011
The Caddo Parish Sheriffâ€™s Office is seeking information on a missing Oil City woman whose car was found burned Monday morning.

Tracy Winslow, 30, was reported missing by her family around 6 a.m. Monday, January 24,2011. Family members said she went out with friends Sunday night but is believed to have returned to Oil City around midnight. A friend is the last one known to have spoken with her by phone around that time.

Winslow's car, a silver 2006 Dodge Charger, was found on fire around 2:30 this morning near North Lakeshore and Kuhn's Road. The car had been abandoned on the side of the road.

Winslow is a black female, 5'2, 172 lbs., with brown eyes and black hair. She has a burn scar by her left eye. She was last seen wearing a white t-shirt, blue jeans, a blue jean-style jacket, and white tennis shoes.

Anyone with information about Winslow or her vehicle is urged to contact Caddo Sheriff's detectives at 675-2170 or 681-0700.
