

Man dressed as Coca-Cola employee arrested for theft from vending machines

Friday, February 25, 2011

A former soft drink company employee was arrested for stealing cash and soda from several vending machines located at the Louisiana Tourist Center in Greenwood, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Broderick Lashaun Jones, 32, of Monroe, was arrested in Monroe on a warrant obtained by Caddo Sheriff's Detective Jason Morgan. Jones was returned to Caddo Parish where he was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for felony theft.

Jones is accused of using a key to enter three Coke machines at the Tourist Center on November 21. The theft was caught on video, which also showed the suspect wearing a Coca-Cola uniform.

The investigation determined that Jones worked at the company's Monroe facility from 2007-2008.

