Third suspect arrested for attempted ATM break-in

Friday, July 29, 2011
A third suspect is behind bars, charged with trying to break-into a Citizen's Bank automated teller machine on June 28, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Ray Dale Jimmerson III, of the 4700 block of N. Lake Drive in Shreveport, turned himself in today at the sheriff's Criminal Investigations Division. Sheriff's Detective Michael Price arrested Jimmerson for property damage over $4,000 and transported him to the Caddo Correctional Center where he was booked.

Donald Ray Reed, 20, of the 3100 block of Montana in Shreveport, turned himself in to authorities on July 1 after he was identified from bank security video aired on local news stations. Charles Ray Taylor, 28, of the 1200 block of North Pine in Shreveport, was arrested July 5 at Caddo Correctional Center where he was being held on unrelated drug charges.

Reed, Taylor, and Jimmerson were captured on video trying to break into the ATM at 5755 North Market Street. The suspects were unable to get into the machine but caused extensive damage.