Man has good time on companyâ€™s dime

Tuesday, December 20, 2011
Caddo sheriffâ€™s detectives arrested a Shreveport man for using his companyâ€™s credit cards to purchase personal items valued at thousands of dollars.

Raymond Spilker Jr., 37, of the 9800 block of Wallace Lake Road, was arrested for felony theft for using two business credit cards to make purchases that were not authorized or business related. The amount of the theft was $8,558. The purchases were for clothing, night clubs, hotel rooms, alcohol, and other non-work related items, said arresting deputy Det. Bobby Herring.

Spilker was booked into Caddo Correctional Center.