Man arrested for using company fuel card

Thursday, February 16, 2012
Caddo detectives have arrested a Bossier City man for using a company fuel card to purchase over $2,000 in gas for his personal vehicle, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Zamar Alexander, 26, was employed as a driver for C&A Hauling where he used a company fuel card to purchase $2,474 in fuel that was not for company use.

Alexander was arrested for theft by Sheriffâ€™s Det. Bobby Herring and booked into the Caddo Correctional Center.