Suspect arrested for home invasion

Wednesday, February 22, 2012
Caddo sheriffâ€™s deputies arrested a man Tuesday night for a home invasion in north Shreveport, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Deputies said the suspect, 18-year-old Antonio Williams, and two juveniles went to 2623 North Pine to confront Shermaine Moses. When they arrived at the residence, an altercation started in the front yard. Moses ran into his residence to get away from the suspects. The suspects followed behind him and ran into the residence, knocking down Mosesâ€™ mother, who is legally blind.

During the altercation, Williams was stabbed once in the lower back. He was taken to LSU Health Sciences Center by Fire District One. After being treated for minor injuries, he was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for home invasion. The two juveniles fled the scene.

The case remains under investigation by Detectives Michael Price and Keith Fox.
