Caddo Sheriff's Office seeks owner of stray hog

Wednesday, May 2, 2012
A hog that has regularly visited a southeast Shreveport neighborhood is now in the custody of the Caddo Parish Sheriffâ€™s Office.

Deputies are trying to locate its owner after it was picked up in the Hidden Trace subdivision near Norris Ferry and Pueblo roads on April 27.

Residents said the hog would routinely come from the woods and wander through the neighborhood. One resident captured the hog and penned it in his backyard until sheriffâ€™s deputies could be notified.

Deputies have canvassed the area but have been unable to find the hogâ€™s owner. Anyone who knows who it may belong to should contact Sgt. Doyle Smith at 681-1120.
