Caddo Parish Sheriff announces summer camps for kids

Thursday, May 3, 2012
Sheriff Steve Prator announced today that applications are being accepted for four summer camps for kids offered by the Caddo Sheriff's Office.

Caddo Sheriff's Camp, an overnight camp for boys ages 10-13, will be held at Garland Scout Ranch June 10-13 in conjunction with the Boy Scouts of America, Norwela Council. The camp recognizes at-risk boys from Caddo Parish for good behavior and academic achievement and introduces them to the scouting program.

The purpose of the camp is to develop leadership skills and encourage involvement in scouting by introducing campers to outdoor activities like swimming, archery, marksmanship, and crafts.

Transportation to and from camp is provided, and funding is made possible through citizen donations. Applications can be obtained from the Boy Scout office by calling 868-2774.

Sheriff's Safety Town will offer one-day mini-camps from June 11 through August 2 for children interested in learning more about safety.Deputies will teach the basics of personal safety, bicycle and motor vehicle safety, fire safety, internet safety, animal safety, gun safety and stranger danger. Older children will also learn about crime scene investigations.

Shortened sessions from either 9-11 a.m. or 12-2 p.m. will be held on Mondays for students entering first and second grade. Incoming third and fourth graders will attend on Tuesdays; fifth and sixth graders on Wednesdays; and seventh and eighth graders on Thursdays. Times for older students are from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Children must bring their own lunch and dress for outside weather, including wearing closed-toe shoes.

There is no charge for the camp but pre-registration is required. To register, call Deputy Angie Wilson at Sheriff's Safety Town at 698-7233.

Three sessions of CSI Camp will be held for children ages 11 and 12.The dates are June 5-7, July 17-19, and August 7-9, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Participants will learn how to detect clues and apply CSI techniques at a mock crime scene. Campers will collect evidence, take crime scene photographs, make shoe impressions, and learn to lift and analyze fingerprints. At the end of the camp, they will be asked to analyze the clues and solve a crime!

Camp will be held at Sheriffâ€™s Safety Town. To register, call Deputy Angie Wilson at 698-7233.

The Caddo Sheriff's Youth Firearms Education Camp will be held June 18-22 at the Sheriff's Regional Training Academy.Boys and girls ages 10-14 may select any day during the week to join Caddo deputies on the firing range for supervised firearms safety education and .22 rifle target shooting. In addition, campers will learn rural and urban survival skills, water safety, and hands-on defensive techniques to protect against stranger abduction.

Each camp session begins at 8 a.m. and ends at 4:30 p.m. The Academy is located at 15639 Highway One South. The camp is free and transportation is available if needed. To register, contact Deputy Andrea Samuel at 681-0735. Applications for the Firearms Camp can also be obtained on-line at www.caddosheriff.org or picked up at any Caddo Sheriffâ€™s Office substation, Caddo Correctional Center, or Sheriffâ€™s Safety Town.
