Caddo sheriff offers safety course for college-bound students

Thursday, July 19, 2012
Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator is offering a one-day safety course for college-bound students ages 17-21.

"College Bound 101" will be held from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday, August 6, at Sheriff's Safety Town, 8910 Jewella Avenue. Instructors will provide crime prevention tips and techniques that can keep you from becoming a victim of crime.

Participants will receive information on the law and you, travel safety, distracted and impaired driving, taking care of your mental and physical health, protecting your identity and possessions, dating violence, drug and alcohol awareness, personal safety, and basic self-defense.

The program is open to men and women. There is no charge for the course, but seating is limited. To register, contact the Caddo Sheriffâ€™s Community Programs Section at 681-0870 or 681-0875.
