A Shreveport man was arrested Friday on charges related to the distribution of cocaine and pills, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator and Shreveport Police Chief Willie Shaw.

Agents with the Caddo-Shreveport Narcotics Task Force interrupted a suspected drug deal in the 7000 block of Clift Avenue. Arrested was Stanley Fuller, 52, of the 3200 block of Woolbert Street in Shreveport. Fuller was in possession of 19 Lortabs at the time of his arrest.

Fuller was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for possession of Lortabs with intent to distribute and possession of cocaine with intent to distribute from an earlier incident. In that case, he was in possession of 71 grams of cocaine.
