Stolen sweets have bitter ending for Shreveport woman

Monday, September 17, 2012
A Shreveport woman was arrested for stealing cookie dough and chocolate from a fund raising company and reselling the items for cash, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Melinda Fuller, 31, of the 2900 block of Jonathan Lane, is accused of submitting fraudulent purchase orders to Fast Track Fundraising in California. The orders included a fake school name and Caddo Parish School Board seal, and forged principalâ€™s signature. Fuller received $2,948.99 in product, which she later sold and kept the money, according to Sheriffâ€™s Detective Bobby Herring, who investigated the case.

Fuller had no affiliation with the Caddo Parish School Board. She was arrested for theft and forgery and booked into the Caddo Correctional Center.
