Patrol deputies in north Caddo Parish arrested a man on drug charges over the weekend after finding 162 grams of marijuana inside his vehicle, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Estaban Deshun Fountain, 30, of the 400 block of Robinson Place in Shreveport, was stopped on a traffic violation around 10 p.m. on Saturday. A search of his vehicle turned up 162.5 grams of marijuana, scales, baggies and marijuana packaged for sale, said Caddo Deputy Timothy Koob.

Fountain was booked into CCC for possession of marijuana with intent to distribute, possession of drug paraphernalia, driving under suspension, and resisting by giving false information.
