Caddo Sheriffâ€™s auxiliary deputy class set to graduate tonight

Monday, December 10, 2012
Graduation for the Caddo Sheriffâ€™s Office Auxiliary Deputy Program will be at 6 p.m. tonight at Sheriffâ€™s Safety Town, 8910 Jewella Ave.

Eight deputies will be sworn in by Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator after completing 57 hours of classroom instruction and 40 hours on patrol with a line deputy.

Auxiliary deputies supplement full-time Caddo deputies by volunteering their services to the Sheriffâ€™s Office and community in a non-enforcement capacity. Auxiliary deputies have contirbuted nearly 17,000 hours this year by assisting road deputies, conducting neighborhood patrols, participating in Community Programs, and more.

Tonightâ€™s graduates are George Alvarez, Jr.; Michael Delano; Buddy Morehead; Sharon Shore; Pastor Joey Ketchum; Chester Simmons, Jr.; Danny Stewart; and Father Michael Thangwa.
