Stonewall man uses company fuel card

Tuesday, February 26, 2013

A Stonewall man was arrested for using a company fuel card to make purchases that weren't company related, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Keith R. Irvin was issued a fuel card when he went to work for Amega West Services in June 2012. Sheriff's Detective Frank Edmondson, of the Caddo-Shreveport Financial Crimes Task Force, said Irvin admitted that during this time he would fill up other cars for cash and use the company fuel card to pay for the transactions. The transactions totaled more than $7,300.

Irvin was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for unauthorized use of an access card.
