A teen-ager was jailed Thursday night after attacking a family member with a knife.

Aaron Nissen, 17, was booked into Caddo Correctional Center for simple battery and aggravated assault after he charged at a male family member with a pocket knife and then swung a sword at him during a domestic argument. During the incident, Nissen's girlfriend, Anna Schoen, also 17, jumped on the family member's back and struck him in the head.

Nissen and Schoen left the scene after the Caddo Sheriff's Office was contacted. The couple was located in the woods about 30 minutes later by Sheriff's K-9 Deputy Jamie McLamb and his dog, Diesel.

The incident occurred in the 14000 block of Odom Road in Hosston where all three people involved in the incident live. There were no injuries reported. Schoen was also booked into CCC for simple battery.
