CPSO seeks man for ID theft and fraud

Wednesday, March 20, 2013

The Caddo Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help in locating 35-year-old Anthony Scott Guidry, who has a history of committing financial crimes and white-collar schemes.

Guidry bonded out of jail in February after his arrest for bank fraud and theft. Detectives say he failed to appear in court and continues to commit felony crimes while out of jail. His whereabouts are unknown.

Since Guidry's release, Caddo Sheriff's Detective Bobby Herring obtained a new warrant for his arrest on identity theft and bank fraud charges. Bond on the new charges was set at $125,000. Guidry is accused of using a man's ID to obtain fraudulent loans from a bank to purchase video/sound equipment for Anthony Scott Guidry Ministries. After obtaining the loan, he returned the equipment for $25,000 cash. The offense occurred between December and January, 2013.

Bookings

Guidry, Anthony

So# 105065
Jacket# 105065
Dob: 11/14/1977
Race: B Sex: M
Height: 5' 7" Weight: 180