Agents arrest man for making meth in warehouse

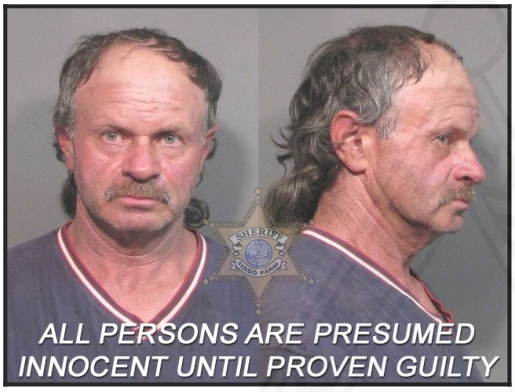

Wednesday, April 3, 2013

Shreveport man was arrested Monday for making methamphetamine in a local warehouse.

Agents with the Caddo-Shreveport Narcotics Task Force contacted Larry James Moss at a warehouse on Wells Island Road where Moss worked as a mechanic. A search of the area produced a small amount of methamphetamine along with several items used in the manufacture of methamphetamine.

Moss, 51, of 626 Blanchard Mobile Villa, was arrested and booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for Possession of Schedule II (meth), Operation of a Clandestine Lab, and being an in-state fugitive.
